

Newlyn Town

from an English folk song

MAURO ZUCCANTE

♩ = 90 c.

mf

1. In New - lyn town I was bred and born for I start-ed a
 2. Now sweet se - ven - teen I did take a wife and I lov - ed her
 3. Now I've six big men to bear my pall give them white
 4. And now I am dead and in my grave the grass grows

♩ = 90 c.

mf

Piano

4
 life and I died of scorn till I took up to a sadd - ler's dear-ly as I love my life and to main - tain her most bold and gloves and white rib - bons all I've six high-way - men for to car - ry ov - er me in great big blades but now I am dead they can speak the

mf

till I took up to a sadd - ler's and to main - tain her most bold and I've six high-way - men for to car - ry but now I am dead they can speak the